look at him. His whole face was due crust and must have been very painful. He scratched day and aight until his face sometimes looked like a raw piece of meat. I was nearly insane but they could not do much for him. He sometimes screamed with pain when I put on the salve they gave me. "When he was two years old the ecusing got on his arms and legs so that I had to keep them bandaged up and I made gioves for his hands so the nails could not poten him worse. We could not get a night's sleep in mouths and my husband and I were all broken up. Then my mother asked why I did not give up the doctors and try Cuticurs. So I got a set and he felt relieved the first time I used them, the Cuticura Ointment felt as cool. He used to wake up and sek for Cuticura to be put on when he itched so badly that he could not sleep, and he would say, "Oh! Mama. that makes my sows feet so good!" Outtackled, outpunted, outplayed and out generaled, Michigan went down to defeat before Pennsylvania today the score of 29 to 0. by the score of 29 to 0.

This makes the third successive feat Michigan has received at the hands of Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania interference was gan was decidedly erratic.

Throughout the first half which ended 6 to 0 in Pennsylvania's favor, Michigan played stubbornly, making gains, but in the second period of play, they weakened and the line could not then resist the relentless attack of the visiting backfield,

The first touchdown made by Penn sylvania was one of the most brilliant examples of the forward pass ever witnessed on Ferry field.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 14.—Chicago fought an even battle with Cornell today, the score being 6 to 6 at the end of the fastest game played in the West this season.

Out weighed and out played on straight football in the first half. Chicago gave an exhibition of speed and involved play in the second that bewildered the Ithacans and set the ball across the Cornell goal.
